

Mr. Akhil PruthiDeputy Director – Strategic Initiatives, Alliance University, Bengaluru.

He has deep interest in institutional research and higher education strategy to solve key issues including quality of higher education, internationalization, branding, and perception in the World University Rankings. He brings an in-depth understanding of global best practices and policies to facilitate collaborative partnerships supporting research, mobility, and teaching and learning. He holds an MBA in Entrepreneurship and Marketing from the Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) and Indian School of Business (ISB), and an MS in Electrical Engineering from the University of Southern California (USC).